

Adam Meyers | Associate lawyer in the Winnipeg MLT Aikins office

Adam maintains a civil and commercial litigation practice with particular focus on professional and medical malpractice defence and regulatory issues. He has experience advising a variety of professionals in terms of defending malpractice/negligence lawsuits and responding to proceedings involving their governance and licensing. Adam also advises on a range of general commercial litigation matters, including collection and recovery proceedings.

Adam has represented clients before the Manitoba Court of King's Bench and Manitoba Court of Appeal, as well as before various regulatory bodies in the province.