

JOIN THE PROVINCIAL ADVISORY CIRCLE

We welcome your voice, perspectives, and lived experiences.
Apply to help inform and shape meaningful change.

About the Provincial Advisory Circle

The Provincial Advisory Circle (PAC) addresses systemic racism and discrimination within the healthcare system. The PAC strengthens accountability by reviewing information related to systemic racism and discrimination, identifying themes and patterns with broader organizational impact. The PAC also recommends equitable remedies and supports follow-up actions.

Who we are looking for?

The PAC is intentionally diverse and representative, bringing together voices from:

- First Nations, Inuit, and Métis communities, Black communities, and other racially marginalized communities
- Elders, Knowledge Keepers/ HOLDERS, Ceremony HOLDERS, and Kookums
- Cultural advisors and faith advisors
- External equity and anti-racism experts
- Clinical and non-clinical leaders

Commitment

- Approximately 4–6 meetings per year
- Additional participation may be required

Honorarium

Community advisors, cultural advisors, faith advisors, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, Knowledge HOLDERS, and Kookums will receive an honorarium in recognition of their time and contributions.

APPLY TODAY! APPLICATIONS DUE SEPTEMBER 18
